What is Sunday JAM?

Sunday JAM (Jesus And Me) is the junior church programme for children 11 years and under.

What happens during Sunday JAM?

For one hour on a Sunday we teach and care for the children and babies during the 11am service. The children all start off together with the adults in church for the first fifteen minutes and then go into groups in the Warwick Hall. We have seven groups.

We aim to give interesting and age appropriate Bible lessons-sharing the Good News of the Gospel and helping the children to grow in their faith. We pray with the children, learn memory verses, make things, and have FUN!

How often does Sunday JAM meet?

We meet every Sunday throughout the year apart from the once a month JAM Service on the 4th Sunday in the month.

What is BREAD?

Y3-Y6 Socials for Mulberry, Blackberry and Apricot groups. We meet for various activities and the children have fun and an opportunity to make closer friendships.

DBS checked?

All leaders and helpers are DBS checked.
